Mrs. Rachel Branson, mother of Mrs. Jas. Cribbs, of this city, is doing nicely at The Harney Valley Hospital after an operation by the Drs. Standards for a tumorous growth of long standing. Mrs. Branson is 62 years of age and had been sick for fourteen weeks, and it was feared she might not withstand the shock.

A very serious accident occurred last Saturday morning on the road about seven miles this side of the P-ranch to Mr. Fred Wickert, an elderly man 61 years old. Mr. Wickert was hauling a load of parcel post from Narrows to the Catlow post office and while driving over some very rough road his wagon seat slipped and pitched him forward between the horses causing the load of 2100 pounds to ride over his right leg and crushing it, he was taken immediately to the P-ranch and Dr. Griffith telephoned for. He was brought to Burns the next day by auto, and it was found necessary to amputate the limb. While Mr. Wickert is well along in years and his condition is serious he has rallied under the shock with some hope of his recovery. Mr. Wickert is being cared for in the home of City Marshall Haines. His son F. W. came up Thursday and will remain with his father for the present.

Expert Service

Men entrust their health to a physician, their building operations to architects, their law matters to lawyers. It is logical also that their financial affairs should be delegated to a good bank, with the facilities and experience to relieve them of such cares.

The Harney County National Bank is equipped to serve you in all details of your financial affairs, in a thoroughly businesslike manner, and in strict confidence. We are here to serve your best interests.
